Nevada City Consumers Enroll In NRA

Campaign Ends With Universal Sign Up

The campaign to enlist all consumers in the NRA movement in Nevada City closed last evening with almost 100 per cent of Nevada City housewives signing the pledge to deal only with those firms that show NRA ensignia and hold membership in the NRA. Those who have not signed are expected to do so within a few days.

This was the report yesterday of General Phil Scadden and Mrs. Belle Douglas, county NRA chairman of the Women's Division.

The drive was inaugurated following a spirited meeting of NRA officials Tuesday evening in the chamber of commerce assembly room at which County NRA Supervisor C. E. Clinch delivered an address outlining the work to be accomplished and the general purposes of the NRA.

Mr. Clinch announced the following mediation commitee: Nevada City—R. A. Eddy, representing labor, J. F. Dolan, representing employers; and Ray Murchie, representing employes.

It will be the duty of this committee to receive complaints and to make complete reports of any infringements of the various codes.

Mr. Scadden announced that 85 firms in Nevada City had signed the President's blanket NRA code, which was 100 per cent of the business houses in the city.

Mr. Clinch named Judge Raglan Tuttle as Nevada County's representative on the State speakers bureau.

The following women were appointed to obtain signatures of householders to the consumers NRA pledge:

Mrs. E. J. Kilroy, Lost Hill; Mrs M. Vanberg, Nevada street; Mrs. W L. Mobley, Grove street; Mrs. Geo. Fortier, High street and adjacent territory; Mrs. Wm. Hooper, Upper Spring street; Mrs. Douglass, West Broad street; Miss Brand, Factory street; Mrs. H. E. Kjorlie, Jordan and Tribulation Trail; Mrs. Horace Curnow, Upper Sacramento street and Zion street; Mrs. E. C. Uren, East Broad and Pine; Mrs. Schiffner, Mrs. Don Steger and Mrs. M. Coughlin, Prospect Hill and adjacent territory; Mrs. John O'Neill, Main street to business section; Mrs. P. O. Strandberg, Red Dog Road; Mrs. Charles Elliott, Pine street from Broad to junction of Sacramento and Zion; Mrs. Eugene Tucker, Sacramento street from Plaza to Pine, with Walrath avenue and lower Grass Valley road; Fred Conner, Boulder street; Mrs. C. Bennetts and Mrs. G. Bettles, Coyote and Alexander; Mrs. Ed Martine, Park Avenue; Mrs. Persons, Upper Nevada and Nursery and B streets; R. R. Goyne, suburbs.

Those who have not been visited by members of this committee should call at the post office, sign the N. R. A. agreement and receive the window cards.

CONVICTED OF PEDDLING WITHOUT LICENSE

Walter Wood, once freed by Justice of the Peace Oscar Winburn on a charge of violating the new peddler's license ordinance of this county, was not so fortunate Tuesday, when he was tried for the same offense, along with his brother, C. W. Wood, before Justice of the Peace C. A. Ocher of Truckee, before a jury. In these cases Judge W. L. Mobley has disqualified himself. The two brothers were fined $50 each and suspended sentence of 50 days in jail or $250 fine was imposed in event they did not take out a license costing $90 each immediately. Deputy District Attorney Robert Tharp represented the people.

H. L. Boswell of Los Angeles and J. C. Bewley of Lodi spent the week-end in Nevada City.

NEVADA CITY NUGGET SENT TO THE PRESIDENT

On the front page of Last Friday's Nevada City Nugget, was a poem written by Mrs. Fred E. Conner, in which Henry Ford was enjoined not to stall his Ford by the ford ,and advised he could not afford to pause by the ford with his Ford. A copy of this newspaper containing this poem was sent to President Roosevelt ,a second to Gen. Hugh S. Johnson, and third to Henry, himself. The poem may not soften Henry's heart regarding signing the automotive NRA code, but it undoubtedly reflects the mind of a great majority of American citizens.

FORMER COUNTY RESIDENTS WILL PICNIC SEPT. 17

Former residents of Nevada county are making arrangements to attend the annual reunion picnic at Mosswood Park, Oakland, Sunday, September 17. The reunion will last all day and everybody is urged to bring a family lunch and make a day of it.

SURPRISED CUSTOMER IS CALLED BY FIRST NAME

He was a stranger in Nevada City. He walked into a local store and made a few purchases. He handed the woman behind the counter some small change. The woman counted it and then said: "Two more cents, Jimmy"

The stranger looked surprised, and studied the countenance of the woman. Finally he ventured: "Oh, have we met before? I do not seem to remember you." It was the woman's turn to be surprised. She was good natured ,however. "Well, we may have, you know. This is a small world." The man hesitated and asked at length: "You know my first name?" She laughed. "I should have said, two more cents, Jimmy tax." The atmosphere cleared.

NEVADA CITY HIGH FRESHMEN INITIATED

Initiation of all Freshmen in the Nevada City high school began yesterday. Those who had broken the rules laid down by upper classmen at the beginning of the term, were heard in their own defense in extemporaneous pleas. Strange to say, most of the Freshmen seemed to have been guilty of breaking some rule. Tonight is the Freshmen's dance at which their initiation will be completed.

Class elections during the week resulted in the following:

STATE TO CARE FOR HIGHWAYS IN NEVADA CITY

The city council last evening decided to turn over to the State highway board the job of spending Nevada City's gas tax allotment on the state highways that traverse this city. This would include the streets that traverse the city as links in the Tahoe-Ukiah and the Downieville highways.

City Engineer Ed Uren was asked to prepare a map for the state highway board at their request. The city council considered that the equipment whcih the city owns would probably not meet with the requirements of the state board in alloting gas tax funds to the city for state highway maintenance purposes.

The following bills were audited and ordered paid:

Ada Rich, $85; W. G. Robson, $125; Geo. H. Calanan, $20; Emma M. Foley, $12.50; Miles D. Coughlin, $12.50; W. C. Jeffery, $65; Herbert S. Hallett, $62.50; Dr. E. M. "WE DO OUR PART"

If we had been present in seventy five
When our very great grand parents were alive,
I'm sure we wouldn't have idled there
When Freedom uttered her piteous prayer;
From field and forest, from home and mart,
Would have come this answer, "We Do Our Part!"

If we had been living in days of yore,
When Lincoln his burden of sorrow bore,
Thru the wrack and ruin of bitter strife,
Thru terrors that threatened the nation's life,
To his weary brain and tortured heart,
Would have come this promise, "We Do Our Part!"

If we had been entities some years back,
When Hobson was sinking the Merrimac,
When Teddy was surging up San Juan hill,
And every day brought an added thrill,
To the country's eager, pulsative heart,
Would have come this assurance, "We Do Our Part!"

Thru the hellish flames of war's lurid glare,
When the four dread horsemen rode—over there,
What did we think of women and men
Who cravenly played the slacker then?
Ah, we aimed our scorn like a burning dart
At those who refused to do their part!

What of the struggle of thirty three,
With its urgent challenge to you and to me,
Come, let us banish doubt and fear
And fill the future with hope and cheer;
This is the purpose of each true heart—
Lead Blue Eagle—"We Do Our Part!"

CONSTITUTION, FEDERAL LOAN TO BE REOPENED

Two famous mines, big producers in the past are to resume operations.

Preparations are being completed for unwatering the Federal Loan mine and reoping this famous property. The old shaft is down 1150 feet and the work of unwatering will start next week. It is expected that it will require several weeks to complete the unwatering. Ore valued at $20 to $30 per ton is reported to be available in some of the levels as soon as the water is gone.

The Constitution has resumed sinking operations and expects to begin taking out ore within 90 days. Ore sampling shows values running as high as $67 per ton with an average of $27. It is hoped to have the mine in full operation within two weeks.

C. O. Thomas, of Thomas & Bowe, Oakland, will make his permanent residence in Nevada City within a very short time. The two properties are being reopened and developed by this Oakland firm.

STORE BURNS AT EMIGRANT GAP

J. W. Hiatts, general mercchandise store, a well known landmark of Emigrant Gap, was burned to the ground last Saturday.

The fire originated in an old shed on the steep slope, below the store, which was only a short distance away. It is alleged two youngsters had been playing with matches on an old mattress in the shed and when questioned as to what they were doing, they answered they were trying to cremate a butterfly.

The fire also burned the post office a part of the store; a barn, several outbuildings and three automobiles and temporarily put out telephone and power systems. However if the children had reported the fire at once practically no damage would have occurred.

Local people, railroad men, C. C. C. fire fighters, and forest servicce officials prevented the fire from spreading to the Emigrant Gap hotel and other buildings and into the forest.

All mail was saved but the entire stock of merchandise was destroyed.

Mrs. Annie Scheemer and Chester Scheemer, of the Plaze Grocery last Saturday visited the State Fair. While there they met Adolph Krump former resident of Nevada City. who is now in business in Lodi. Mrs. Krump has recently undergone an operation for removal of her tonsils.

Sept. 2, 1933

Nevada City Nugget:

Gentlemen: About five years ago I bought, from an antique shop in San Jose, an old rosewood melodeon, with pewter handles, I was told that it had come from an old lady in Nevada City, who had been reluctant to part with it. I wonder if you will be so good as to quote this note in one of your issues, in the hope that one of your readers may tell something of the history of this old relic of early days in Nevada City. It would give me much pleasure to be able to tell the original owner or her heirs what lovely music is still to be got from it. Thanking you, I am

Respectfully yours

LUMBER, STEEL AND OIL TO PUT 400,000 IN JOBS

WASHINGTON, Sept. 7—Following the President's approval of codes for the lumber, steel and oil industries, which together will provide new jobs for 405,000 workers laid off by those major groups, the first hearing opened on the mammoth retail trade, with 400 representatives of all branches present except the food and grocery distribution division.

"This is the first public hearing on trade, as distinguished from industry, that has ever been held in the United States," said Deputy Administrator Whiteside in outlining procedure. "The decision to be reached will affect not only the 429,121 storekeepers whose investment is less than $500 and whose stores are the centers of community life in thousands of villages, but those great department stores which are cities within themselves. All told, 1,489,720 retail concerns and more than 5,000,000 wage earners are affected. Self-government for trades, dealing directly with every consumer in the country, is our most important social problems."

He emphasized the fact that the President personally reviews every code and reports on it, and said: "His decisions are based upon the broadest understanding of the factual evidence. This direct supervision by the President gives wage earners complete confidence in the justice and fundamental soundness of the provisions as an assured basis for continuance of their employment at a living wage. Upon that confidence, which has permeated the entire banking, industrial, and mercantile structure of the country, the success of this most far-reaching economic legislation ever conceived, the NRA, is absolutely guaranteed."

The code as submitted provides a 44-hour week and 48 hours at peak periods, excepting those earning more than $30 per week, registered pharmacists and other professional persons, and minimum rates of pay varying from $11 in villages to $14 weekly in the larger cities.

It is conservatively estimated that 150,000 additional workers can be reemployed in the retail trades on the basis of their code as submitted; a 44-hour week would be required to reabsorb the approximate 10 to 12 per cent of retail employees laid off since 1929, ranging from a minimum of 7 per cent in New York to a maximum of 32 per cent in Detroit and an increase of 2 per cent in Washington, D. C.

Differences of opinion between merchants who grant credit and those on strict cash basis; protests against sale of merchandise in drug stores, especially the question of hours, give promise of extended debates, and General Johnson has called for night sessions.

Another minimum of 150,000 will be provided with new jobs under the shortened work week adopted by the electric light and power ,telephone, gas and canning industries, whose modified codes under the President's reemployment agreement, have been approved. These also employ at present 1,500,000 men and women.

PUBLIC HEALTH STANDARDS IN STATE RAISED

By MELVIN LORD

SACRAMENTO, Sept. 7—(UP)—Improvement of public health conditions is one of California's most important governmental problems, in the opinion of state officials.

This function, incidentally, will be of increasing importance in the next few years, it is believed.

Recognition of the policy, state records reveal, has led to the employment of a total of 238 city and county health officers in the state, of whicch three are located in Nevada county.

DECREASING MORTALITY

This total includes only the heads of public health departments, and does not take into consideration the hundreds of other doctors, nurses and other persons employed by county and municipal health agencies.

The steady increase in public health work in recent years is credited by officials with being largely responsible for better control of contagious diseases, more regular school attendance and a decreasing death rate.

"There are indications that public health problems will be more acute in the immediate future than have been in the past," Dr. Giles S. Porter, director of the state department of public health said.

FAULTY HOUSING

"It is conceded generally that the results of the economic depression have not, as yet, exerted a profound influence upon public health conditions.

"During the new few years health departments generally will undoubtedly be burdened with problems that will arise in the wake of the period of unemployment, under-nutrition, exposure and faulty housing conditions that have prevailed to a certain extent since 1929.

"Because of this the work of the public health officers will be of particular importance."

Mrs. Elmo Trewhella of Alleghany returned home yesterday after a few days visit in Nevada City with her sister, Mrs. Louie Davidson.

QUEEN LIL MILL'S NEW FLOTATION UNIT READY

With the completion of the flotation unit and other general improvements which have been undertaken during the past six weeks at the Queen Lil mill, the mill is now equipped to handle a small amount of custom ore, in addition to handling the production of the West Mines Corporation and the associated Comstock Gold Point Mining Company. Several test lots are now being run, or in transit for that purpose, from smaller nearby properties. The new flotation unit is using pneumatic agitation, which, it is believed, has not previously been used in this district.

MOST SCHOOLS DENIED PLEA TO INCREASE TAX

By MELVIN LORD

SACRAMENTO, Sept. 7—(UP)—Strict interpretation of the economy provisions of the Riley-Stewart tax plan today led the state board of equalization to deny all but 17 of 800 requests of school districts to exceed the 5 per cent per year budget increase limitation.

Requests for expenditures over the 5 per cent limitation totaled almost $4,000,000, according to Fred E. Stewart, board member. Of this amount only $1,588,886 was allowed by the board, including $1,352,481.43 to Los Angeles county for reconstruction and repair of schools damaged by the earthquake.

Aside from the earthquake reconstruction funds, virtually the only emergency claims validated were to replace schools destroyed by fire, or to carry through building contracts entered into before the Riley-Stewart plan was adopted last June.

"The board has adhered to the most rigid interpreation of 'emergencies' in acting upon requests for authority to exceed the 5 per cent budget limitation, believing that every tax-spending body owes it to the people at this period to practice the strictest economy in government affairs," State Controller Ray L. Riley said.

"We have sought to keep faith with the people of California, who, wwhen they voted for the Riley-Stewart plan, were equally desirous of tax equalization and drastic retrenchment in both local and state expenditures. The board, on the other hand, has done its utmost to guard against crippling any school district."

Favorable action was taken on the following applications:

BIG CREW WORKS ON BRUNSWICK MINE REOPENING

Work has started in earnest in the reopening of the old Brunswick shaft 1350 feet deep. The Idaho Maryland Mines Company, Ltd., has put 50 men to work on the shaft and surface structures.

For a week or more a small crew has been clearing away debris at the mouth of the shaft, where fire destroyed the surface buildings and hoisting equipment about a year ago.

The new Brunswick shaft, which is also 1350 feet deep, adjoins the Brunswick mill, which has been mirring ore from the Idaho Maryland mine for the last two years. The covering over the new shaft is to be removed, the timbering inspected and replaced, and preparations made for installing pumping and hoisting machinery.

MRS. SPLIVALO URGES WOMEN'S C. C. C. CAMPS

SACRAMENTO, Sept. 7—(UP)—Camps for unemployed women similar to the CCC camps for men should be established in Cailfirnia, according to Mrs. Rheba Crawford Splivalo, director of the state department of social welfare.

"In view of the apparent success of President Roosevelt's conservation camps, it would appear that consideration should be given for the establishment of camps for the unemployed women," said Mrs. Splivalo.

"It would seem that the establishment and operation of such camps would be feasible from both an economic and social standpoint. They would answer, partially at least, a very definite need."

The director declared her department was "keenly interested in the success of recovery particularly insofar as it applies to the women.

"The problem of providing for approximately 200,000 unemployed and single women now in California is a serious one whicch merits the utmost consideration and attention of welfare and social agencies."

Despite the success of state and national recovery programs, the number of persons to obtain re-employment under this legislation has not as yet been reflected in the aid rolls.

"It is doubtful if any material change or a reversal of the now upward trend of aid cases may be expected for a year or more," Mrs. Splivalo said.

"The number of aged, blind and children seeking relief under the state's humanitarian and progressive relief laws showed a net increase of 491 persons during the past month, boosting the number of persons on the aid rolls to 31,938 as compared with 31,447 the previous month."

NEW APARTMENTS ARE MAKING FAST PROGRESS

A. H. Burtner, contractor and crew of men, who are remodeling the old Transcript building into six new modern apartments, are making rapid progress.

They have all the interior framwork in place and are now putting up partitions. Two new stairways have been completed from the Commercial street side giving the building three main entrances.

The framework is up in the back for the sleeping porches and entrances to the small garden space have been made.

Frank Davies purchased this large well built old building several years ago and used it as a stage garage, leaving most of the upstairs vacant.

The six apartments will assist very materially in relieving the housing shortage that exists in Nevada City.

LEGISLATURE FRIENDLY TO WAR VETERANS

By THOMAS B. MALARKEY

SACRAMENTO, Sept. 7—(UP)—The legislature tide turned against the world war veteran in congress and in some other states, but insofar as California is concerned the vets came out better than ever during the prolonged 50th session of the legislature.

The vets scored two major victories. First, a bill repealing the act providing veterans be given a $1000 property tax exemption in California, was killed in committee.

VETERAN'S EXEMPTION

Extent of this victory is self-evident in view of the fact that 192,161 ex-soldiers were given property tax exemptions last year totaling $107,985,031.

In Nevada county last year, 397 veterans' propery valued at 182,560 was exempt.

Even more important, was passage of a measure submitting to the people in 1934 a proposal for a $30,000,000 bond issue to finance veterans farm and home loans.

This act ran into opposition at the outset but was eventually passed when veteran leaders promised they themselves would oppose its approval at the polls if the state's financial condition was such in 1934 it should not undertake an additional bond issue.

SCHOOLING FOR CHILDREN

With comparative ease, a measure appropriating $25,000 to help children of ex-soldiers injured in the war through school, was approved and signed by the governor. This work had been under way for some time past and the money to carry it on had been used up.

A special concession bill for veterans was, however, killed. It provided they should not be compelled to pay for fishing and hunting licenses.

Possibly sensing this session was not the time to launch much of a legislative campaign, veterans were merely content to get their bond issue through and resist attempts of various legislators to upset any hard won consessions they had secured in previous years.

With Gas Heating, a control valve or a dependable thermostat is their fire tender or furnaceman. These homes are never overheated with wasted fuel — never chilly from neglected fires. The temperature is readily maintained, whole house warmth, in any weather.

Today the almost universal acceptance of Gas as the preferred fuel is chiefly for its cleanliness and convenience. It comes ready made and ready to use—piped directly to the gas heating appliance. The outstanding preference for Gas fuel is convincing proof that Gas is the modern fuel for California homes and California climate.

Why not get the facts about Gas Heating as these customers of ours have done? Once you do this you too, will install Gas Heating in your home for the coming winter.

PAPA WOULD GIVE UP OFFSPRING FAR COLLEGE

SACRAMENTO, Sept. 7—(UP)—There is a continually increasing tendency of parents to forfeit the privilage of rearing ther own children and allowing others to assume the responsibility ,a report of the state department of social welfare reveals.

One of the most recent of such cases involved a young father who offered his child for adoption as a means of stretching his small income to finance his educational ambitions.

"The application, representing an unwarranted and disgracedful display of selfishness, was blocked," said Mrs. Rheba Crawford Splivalo, department director.

COOK'S TOURISTS TAKE TRAIL OF ARGONAUTS

CAMPTONVILLE, Sept. 5—About eleven o'clock Sunday morning the large de luxe Grayline coach, bearing the first pilgrimage of the Trails of the Argonauts, conducted by Thomas Cook and Sons, world known touring bureau, pulled into town, and was greeted by William B. Meek, pioneer of this section. During their stay here the members of the party were guests of Mr. Meek for refreshments and shown about the town, viewing the Pelton Monument.

This is the largest passenger vehicle of its kind ever piloted over these mountain roads, it being necessary to have the coach proceeded by a traffic officer in order to assist in passing other vehicles. While it was here, the driver and Mr. Meek had their pictures taken together, it being a contrast, Meek having been a Knight of the Whip and renouned stage driver, and the younger man, a skilled man at the wheel handling the big machine.

H. C. Peterson, curator of Sutters Fort at Sacramento and Jack Wolff, prominent Grass Valley citizen, accompanyied the party as guides, explaining points of interest along the route. The party started Saturday morning from San Francisco, and ended Monday night back to San Francisco.

POLITICIANS SEE ELECTION AHEAD AND GROW MUM

By THOMAS B. MALARKEY

SACRAMENTO, Sept. 7—(UP)—Visualize a small army of state officials and subordinates trying to walk on eggs without breaking them.

That gives you an insight into the attitude of state officialdom. Reason is the 1934 campaign is approaching. Word has gone out the less said on controversial matters the better.

Since his torrid outburst on the Jack D. Green case, the governor has been the soul of discretion. Apprehensive secretaries hover nearby at press conferences to guide the governor away from "thin ice." Once a secretary interrupted a conversation with the press to whisper in Rolph's ear. Immediately the governor relapsed into silence.

Other administration officials are the same. Ask them any question on a touchy subject, and they'll answer: "Well, it's getting pretty close to election time; perhaps I shouldn't say anything at this time."

Rolph "reelectioneers" devoutly hope the primary field will be cultered with republican candidates. They know the more candidates, the greater the governor's chances. They wouldn't even be distressed if Bob Shuler got into the race.

Fully aware of the democratic threat next year, republican leaders are counting on their opponents killing themselves off by intra-party strife. Rumors of Bourbon discontent over McAdoo leadership are pleasing the G. O. P.

If the 18th amendment is repealed before Christmas—as appears reasonably probable—California's present beer tax bill will be virtually nullified. The levy is on "non-intoxicating" beverages of 3.2 per cent and under. All a brewer need to do would be to increase the alcoholic content over 3.2, And, rest assured, he'll do just that.

In other words, repeal will cost the state $750,000 annually until new beer taxes are passed. Incidentally, wines and liquors would go completely tax-free in California until the 1935 legislative session unless the governor convokes a special session. And the governor is against the general idea of special sessions.

The equalization board showed rare political courage in turning down more than 700 school district applications to increase expenditures 5 per cent over last year's total. Hundreds of school officials from Vierling Kersey, on down the line, deeply resent its action. On the other hand, the board can expect to reap a bumper crop of gratitude from hard pressed taxpayers.

Assemblyman Lawrence Cobb, chairman of the ways and means committee and Lieutenant-Governor Frank Merriam cracked down on the administration this week. Cobb charged the Rolph administration was doing everything possible to evade legislative economy measures and added "we only scratched the economy surface; if the legislature were called in special session, we'd probably refuse to pass additional taxes but would approve further economy measures." Merriam inferred Rolph maladministration was partially responsible for the sales tax.

The Governor's outburst on the Green case (Jack D. Green, who's scheduled to hang September 15) was illuminating. . . it revealed the governor felt he was being mistreated and misunderstood by the press . . he felt some elements of the press failed to accord proper respect to the state's chief executive . . Merriam insists he plans to go through with his plan to run for governor . . he denied any intention to slide back to the position of running for reelection . . Finance Director Rolland Vandegrift saved the narcotics division from virtual dissolution by giving that state agency $25,000 out of the emergency fund.

REMINGTON HILL SOON TO COMPLETE FLUMES

Frank Crampton and partner Mr. Boyce came down from their Remington Hill gravel mining property last week on a short business trip.

They still have several men employed in building new flume and repairing of the old one. This flume will carry water a long distance as will be sufficient to operate the company's large gravel holdings.

It is expected that all will be in readiness for hydraulic operations some time this month.

If You Feel Gloomy And Tired--Test This

You can't feel well and strong unless your liver furnishes plenty of fresh bile every day. Without bile food doesn't digest properly—it just ferments and decays—constipation, gas, sour stomach, headaches and nervousness follow.

Don't be misled. Calomel, salts, oils, mineral waters, laxative pills, powders, herb teas, etc., have no effect whatever on the liver. There are only two generally recognized substances which actually cause a sluggish liver to increase its production of bile. Sargon Soft Mass Pills contain both of them.

Unless you have tried Sargon Soft Mass Pills you can have no idea of their effect—

You feel stronger, healthier, happier—life and color return to faded eyes and cheeks—appetite and digestion improve rapidly.

LUMBER TALKS

YES INDEED

Yes indeed, Nevada County
won her trophies at the Fair,
And her people were in evidence
Here, there, and everywhere;
And of course we loved to linger
In a sort of prideful way,
Round that interesting section
Where we had our own display.

Yes indeed, Nevada County
Won her fame in days of yore,
But our real concern at present
Has to do with days before;
There were years of weary waiting,
Hours when every hope seemed vain,
But somehow our hearts kept singing,
"Better Days Will Come Again."

Yes indeed, Nevada County
Sees a pay streak just ahead,
And we're busily inspecting
Tempting lode and gravel bed
With the Eagle Blue above us,
And the golden hoard below,
Once again we're optimistic,
And our watchword it is,
"Go!" A. M. C.

During business hours and patriotic days there is not so much to talk about —Let's go.

Appreciating the increased activity of our city and surrounding territory, we have added to our stock of supplies. We feel sure that our prices are consistent with the market and propose to keep them there. Too, we realize that we are responsible for our share of effort to the end of helping adjust prices and wages in keeping with the program of the administration of our government, which we shall do. Our policy is to co-operate with our buyers and the interests of our territory.
